FOREWORD ...

Faces of 1954—our faces! Yes, to the many faces of Warren Central we present the 1954 Wigwam.

Those faces in the classrooms, in the gym, on the football field—all had a vital part in our school year. Our book is, therefore, based on the faces of Warren Central.

First, there was the face of the senior, looking towards the future while fond memories of the not-too-far-gone past still lingered. Then, with the look of determination, the face of the underclassman also revealed gay and carefree expressions. It is the treasured memories of dances, hayrides, meetings, and assemblies that bring pleased smiles to the faces. The excitement of the games brought expressions showing happiness and occasional sorrow.

Yes, in the faces of Warren Central is depicted another successful year.

To Allen,
sweet, I think
an awful lot of you.
Even though we haven't been together, I have always had a wonderful time.
There isn't enough space to say what I want to, but
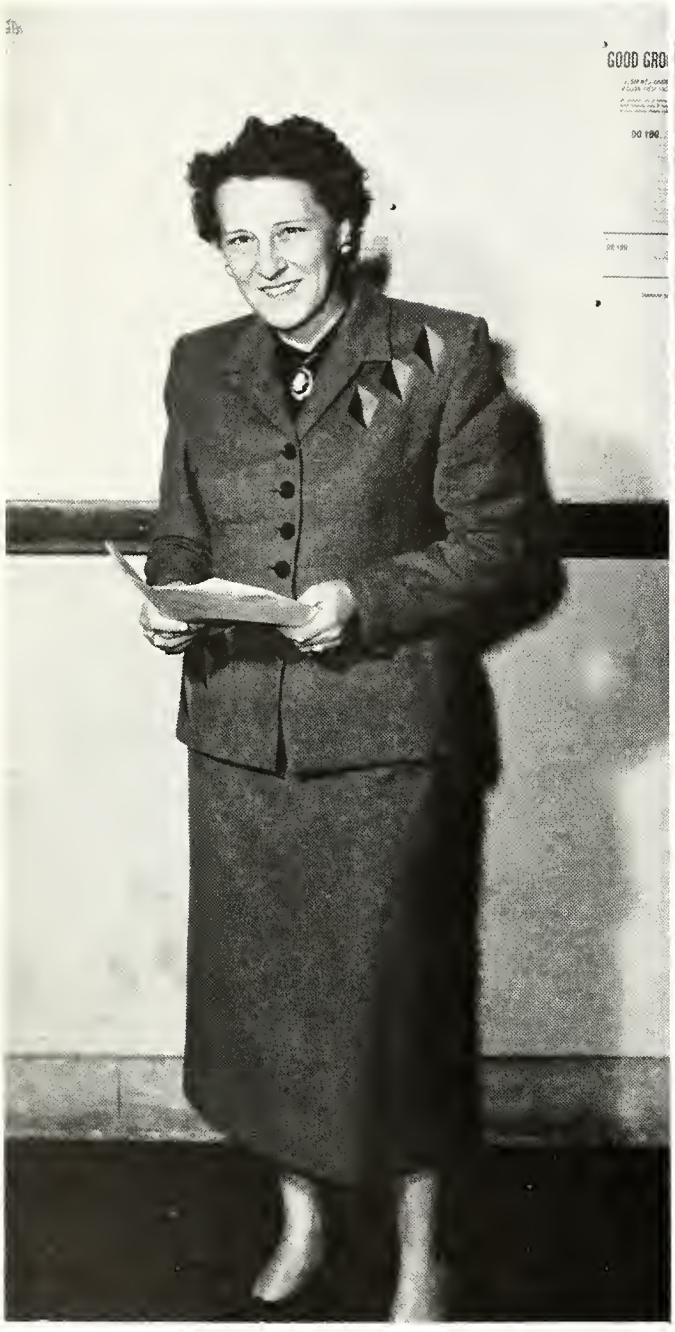
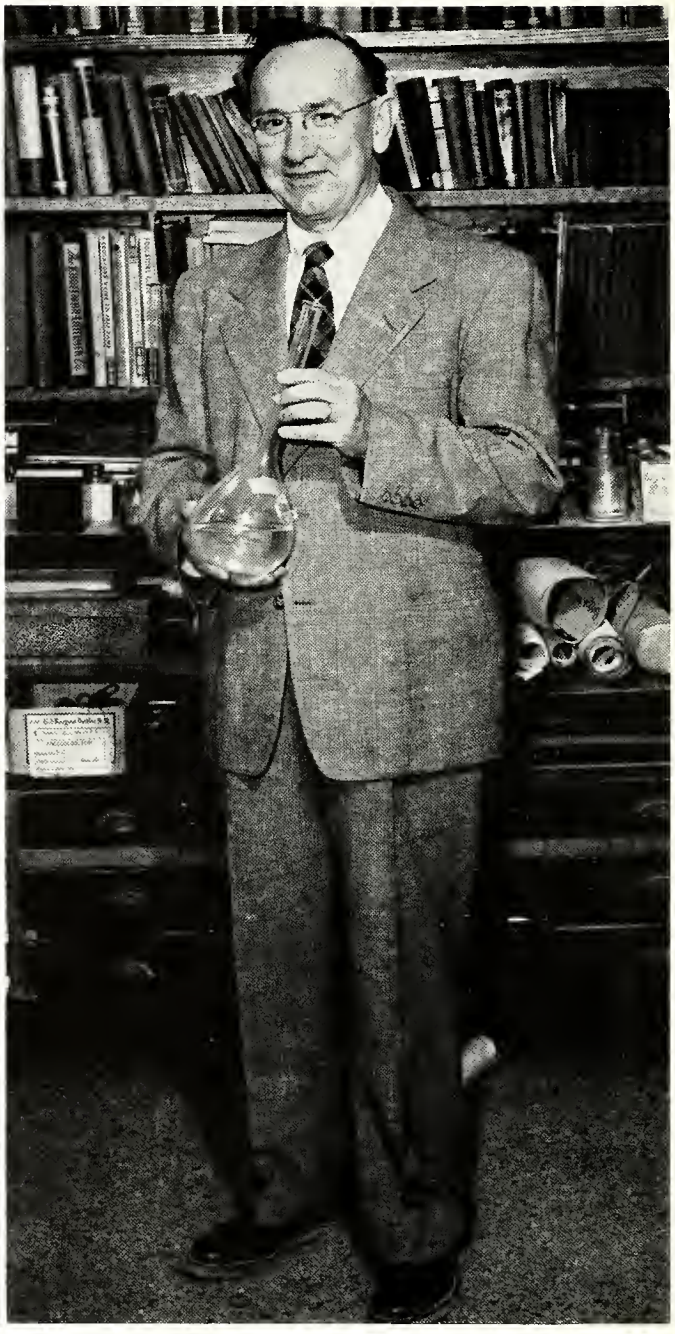
I'll say it always remember me.
Love always
Linda





WE DEDICATE OUR ANNUAL TO . .

MISS MARJORIE FORSYTH, associated with our school since 1931 and now teacher of history and orientation. Always concerned with the safety of the students, Miss Forsyth organized and sponsors the Driving Club. She has done a lot of work on behalf of the students of Warren. We'll always remember her.

MR. GEORGE KEEVER, instructor in science, mathematics, photography, and visual aids since 1931. He is always on hand, rain or shine, to give his help, and when it's requested everyone can count on him. The hours he has spent at our school cannot be numbered. This is our way of saying thanks.

Dalling up the new curtain purchased jointly by the Warren Parent-Teachers Assaciation and the township are Harlean Privette and Martha Stroud. This was the secand curtain far the gymnasium stage in seventeen years.

ADDED TO THE OLD

Darlene Miller selects one of the character-building books fram the table that was purchased in memory of Mrs. Jean Miers, farmer librarian, who died in an automobile accident on Christmas Day, 1952.

(Right) One af the most useful additians this year was the new parking lot.

(Left to right) The Civil Air Patrol color guard included cadets 1st Sgt. Ronald Krieg, Capt. Barry Wheeler, 1st. Lt. Dick McClure, and 2nd. Lt. Jerry Grabhorn. Sharp and snappy, they performed at half-time during athletic activities and special convocations.

SCHOOL LIFE

ADMINISTRATION

MR. C. E. EASH, PRINCIPAL

Probably more than any other individual, Mr. C. E. Eash has guided the growth and development of this, the largest six-year high school in the state, since the school's beginning in 1924. Respected alike by parents and professional graups far and wide, he has demonstrated time and again the sincerity, patience, and leadership qualities far which he is so well known to both students and teachers.

Through his stabilizing influence we have praspered.

This face is a familiar one to all of us. As dean of girls MRS. HAROLD E. RODDEN has given generously of her time and talents to Warren for twenty-nine years. She is also in charge of the school cafeteria.

HELPING HANDS

MR. RALPH W. CLEVENGER, here at his usual post in the cafeteria, is always ready to give a helping hand to any student in filling the capacity of dean of boys. During his eighteen years at Warren he has served thirteen years as basketball coach.

GIRLS' CLUBS ENCOURAGE LEADERSHIP

This was the first year thot the National Beta Club and Warrenette Council have existed at our school. The intangible part of these orgonizations is to promote the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among high school students. The tangible activities were the annual Mother and Daughter Tea and the sending of the Beta Club officers to the National Beta Convention in Louisville, Kentucky. Mrs. H. E. Rodden sponsors both groups.

The school's two Hi-Y chapters, the Alpha group sponsored by Mr. Ralph W. Clevenger, and the Beta group sponsored by Mr. I. E. Dinn, worked for the benefit of the school and community. Participation in the United Nations mock assembly and presenting various religious programs, the clubs also sponsored several concessions at mony after-school events for the general school fund. (Left to right) the officers of the Beta Club were Larry Grabhorn, pres.; Ronnie Hartman, vice-pres.; David Oertel, chaplain; Fred Horsley, sec.; and Don Emrich, treas.

FOR THE SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

ARTISTS ARE INDISPENSABLE

The designing of posters, decorating for dances or any other art requirements for special functions were the duties of the Art Service League. (Left to right) Joyce Foreman, Beverly Wells, Joan Ross, and Ralph McMinn. Miss Robertson was the sponsor.

TO MAKE A LIVING

Seniors Dolton Smith, Charles Wagner, Gerold Boren, and Ralph Easterday worked diligently learning about retailing and selling. This class was offered to any student who had reached the age of 16.

Instructors in commerce were (clockwise, lower left) Mrs. Lola Hanger, beginning typing; Mr. Harold Freeland, diversified education, and retailing and selling; Mr. Edward C. Baldwin, business math and bookkeeping; and Miss Lokile Hicks, shorthand and advanced typing.

Instructors in the Industrial Arts Department this year were (left to right) Mr. John Porter, metal shop, Mr. Clyde Spears, printing, Mr. Don T. Connerley, drafting, and Mr. John Herkless, woodworking.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEVELOP SKILLS

(Left to right) Jim Hatcher and Don Rogers proofread to check against any errors in a job by the school's print shop. Among the countless jobs are programs and invitations to school functions as well as official forms for the township.

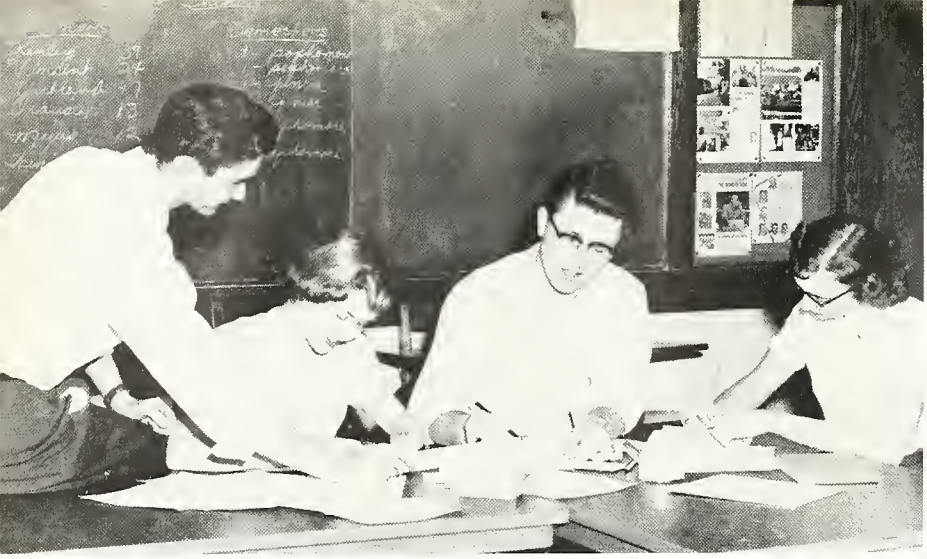
The Future Homemakers, under the guidance of Mrs. Wanda Beeson, are enjoying the home-made toys that were one of their projects for the year.

The officers of the Future Homemakers were (left to right) Judy Atkinson, pres., Mary Wright, vice-pres.; Daryl Smith, historian; Dawn Veteto, parliamentarian, Barbara McConnell, treas.; Verdith Lawyer, sec.; Judy Caaley, song leader; and Gloria Carter, reporter.

Miss Henrietta Bixler and Mrs. Wanda Beeson are exchanging comments on a piece of print material. Both are instructors of home economics.

TO MAKE A HOME

The Junior Leaders are sponsored by Mrs. Wanda Beeson. These girls participated in the Warren Township Achievement Awards program. They were also the leaders in the organization, planning and carrying out of 4-H club activities. They are (left to right) Karen Schweir, Barbara Merkle, Mary Wright, Donna Myers, and Jayne Edwards.



To send school news to the city and county newspapers was the purpose of the news bureau staff. Staff members under the advising of Mr. Kesler were Keith Brattain, manager; Gloria Corter, Jimmie Ray, and Mary Wright. Solly Knuckles (not pictured) served on the staff the first semester.

Officers of the local chapter of Quill and Scroll, honorary organization for high school journalism students, were Jack Reasor, pres.; Carol Sue Johnson, vice-pres.; and Sharon Marshall, sec.-treas. Sponsor of the club was Mr. Kesler. The local chapter was responsible for the tenth annual Public Relations Banquet and the Notional Scholastic Press picture salon.

The tea was attended by the members of the Warrenette and National Beta Clubs, and their mothers.

Autumn Jamboree was the name selected for the fall party. This dance was sponsored by the Alpha Hi-Y and National Beta Club. Tech's dance band played in the gym for ballroom dancing, while Country Cousin Chickie provided square dance accompaniment.

(Above) All aboard, gang, far the Warren Central Special to the East St. Louis game! Four-hundred loyal students, alumni, teachers, and parents accompanied the foatball team.

(Left) The lunch, provided by the school, was enjoyed by all who went to East St. Louis.

EAST ST. LOUIS, HERE WE COME!

On the way home there was need far relaxation. Here Ed Arnold, Kay Grabhorn, and Vincent Wilkerson enjoy a game of cards. Although Warren was defeated, countless fine reports favored another such trip next year.

The enthusiasm of the crowd grew as they cheered the team. Warren was the first team to scare against tough East St. Louis this season.

LENDING TALENT, SUPPORT, MONEY

Fred Cutler received Verdith Lawyer's contribution to the annual Hi-Y Mile of Dimes. This was just one of the many service activities sponsored by the Hi-Y.

ROYALTY REIGNS

MISS BEVERLY ANN WELLS
FOOTBALL QUEEN

Warren Central football fans selected Beverly Wells as their 1953 Football Queen, crowned before the Warren Central-Franklin Township game.

MISS JUDITH ANNE UPDIKE
JAMBOREE QUEEN

Representing Warren Central in the court of royalty of the First Annual County Football Jamboree was Judy Updike.

Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, Donna Armitage and Harvey Hodgins, seniors, reigned over the festivities.

DANCE HIGHLIGHTS CHRISTMAS SEASON

Couples whirled to the rhythms of the Tech Rhythmaires at the Candy Cane Capers.

Juniors Glaria Lazo, Margie Strickler, and Pally Doorne display their talents in a home arts class.

(Below) Intent upon, and taking notes an a lecture in a practical science class are James Gaalsby, junior, and Ronnie Cross, Clara Free, and Joan Ross, seniars.

In "bad shape," Kenny Sarensen is assisted by Danny Everts and Jim Snadgrass in a sophomore safety and health class.

Though Christmas was nearing, classes continued. Here, Jim Schutt and Carolyn Robinson set to work on geometry in Mr. S. Edwin Cooper's class.

The majorettes led off the band during one of several fine shows at half-time at home football games and at the East St. Louis encounter.

This familiar face is that of Mrs. C. E. Eash, who wos olwcys on hand to assist students at the school bookstore. She is responsible for the handling of about $150,000 annually.

Mrs. Mary Jane Deer, office receptionist and township clerk, could be depended upon to assist members of the student body and faculty in the countless detoils of clerical work.

AIDS ESSENTIAL

Mrs. Alma Taylor, school nurse, was the official comforter of the countless aches and pains of the student body. She wos on the alert at oll times to improve the health conditions at Warren.

TO SCHOOL

Indispensable in any school are the janitors. Students and faculty members were always able to depend upon the janitors (left to right) Mr. Carl Allan, Mr. Charles Page, Mr. John Schumacker, Mr. Ernest Brim, custodian; Mr. Harry Blank, Mr. Ross Burget and Mr. Gus Pantle, to have the building well heated, clean, and in constant repair.

School matrons (left to right) Mrs. Mabel Wiese, and Mrs. Zola Brim, finish up a day's work in the school's laundry room in the gymnasium. Both could always be depended upon to have the athletic uniforms clean when needed.

Coach "Blackie" Braden proudly displays the trophies the Warriors won in the County Tourney.

This was Mr. Braden's third year as varsity coach at Warren and his first championship team.

ACTION

(Below) Again the Big Three were there to get a rebound. They are Bob Anderson (35), Ken Pennington (24), and the other white suit is Harvey Hodgin. Ben Davis won, 57-56.

(Right) Bob Anderson (35) seems to be saying, "Com'on, fellas, let me have it." The other Warren player is Kenny Pennington. The opponents are the Ben Davis Giants.

These shats of the Decatur Central game shaw the typical actian that the Warren fans saw all seasan.

The county championship was captured after 27 years of trying. The crown was taken from Ben Davis, 67-52.

WE WIN

(Right) Proudly displaying the trophies, Dope Box, ball, and net were (left to right) Mr. C. E. Eash, principal; Mr. Carl Braden, head coach; Mr. Robert Meyer, reserve coach; and Mr. Vaughn Wood, athletic director.

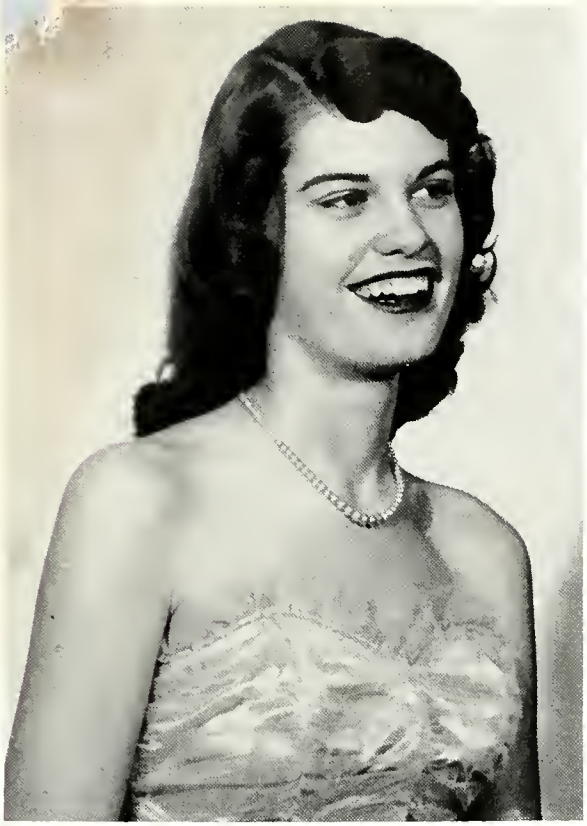
BASKETBALL QUEEN



MISS SHARON SUE MARSHALL

Crowned Basketball Queen on Alumni Night at the Franklin Township game, the final game of the regular basketball season, Sharon Marshall, senior, was chosen in an all-school election.

STUDENT BASKETBALL MANAGERS

A necessity for any varsity athletic team is the team managers, who have the responsibility of caring for the team's equipment and assisting the coaches. (Left to right) Alan Burt, Kent Haldren and Harry Hubble were the team managers of the basketball teams.

126 PARTIC

Another mad scramble for the ball.

'ATE IN INTRAMURALS

This is a typical play in the intramural games, where sometimes the rules of basketball are forgotten.

(Left) Mr. Herman Nolte has been the intramural sponsor for five years. Since then intramural athletics have increased three times.

CROSS COUNTRY

Robert Houston lengthened his stride and overtook a Washingtan Continental.

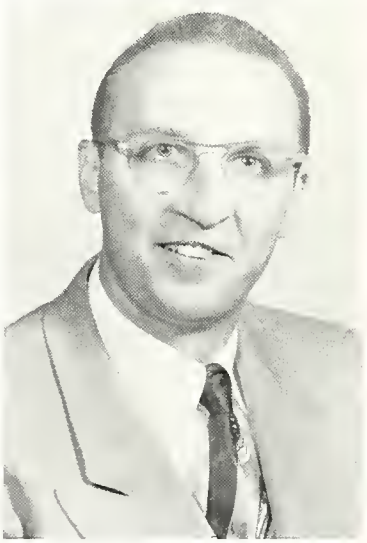
Limbering up before a meet were Richard Smith and Richard Pate.

Harvey Hodgin, a top quarter miler.

Bob Houston, a leading point-getter in middle distance runs.

CINDER VETERANS

Mike Writt, leading hurdler in the county.



This was Mr. William Glesing's first year as head track coach.

DIAMOND

Mr. Robert Meyer was head baseball coach.

Paul Heckart gets set for the pitch.

VETERANS

Bob Anderson moves with the crack of the bat after the ball.

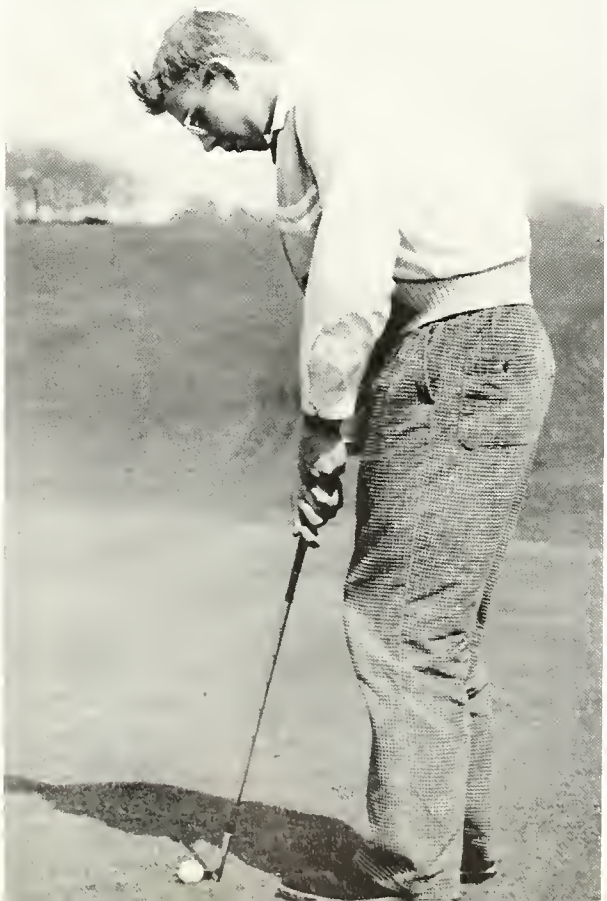
Bob McConnell pauses to wash his golf ball between holes.

Jim Walter drives a long shot that is headed straight for the pin.

GOLF

The golf team is coached by Mr. Carl Braden.



John Sare eyes up a short putt on Pleasant Run Golf Course.

SECTIONALS

The Warriors defeated Manual in a sudden-death overtime, 49-47, and Shortridge, 58-51, ta be stopped by Tech, 60-45, in the semi-finals. These are Shortridge game shots.
